

Our Own Baby

Gilbert O'Sullivan

We both know each other for well over a year,
During which time we've shed many a tear,
But throughout it all one thing is clear,
I still love you, love you, love you
You more than hold the key to my happiness,
Therefore, I suggest, why don't we get together,
Once and for all, who knows baby,
Next year a stork might call,
Present us with a beautiful sight to see,
Our own baby
All my life I never asked for very much,
Never felt the need to take what I could touch,
My ambition was without any fuss,
To be happy, happy, happy, happy
Well judging by the time I'm having with you,
I'd say it's come true, now why don't we
Get together once and for all,
Who knows baby next year a stork might call,
Present us with a beautiful sight to see,
Our own baby;
We'll give it everything that money cannot buy,
We'll take it with us everywhere we go,
Because we love it I may not be as handsome as a king,
But looks aren't everything,
Now why don't we get together,
Once and for all, who knows baby,
Next year a stork might call,
Present us with a beautiful sight to see,
Our own baby
Our little one, our own baby,
It's bound to be a son,
Just like his father before him.
