

Crocodile Tears

Gilby Clarke

I heard a boom and a crash, was that another regret
Slammin' me for my past, I can't remember to forget
Check your pulse you're a wreck, a twist of passionate affection
The thrills that drive you wild, fetish driven collision

I can love you better than that - and the Crocodile Tears you cry
I won't leave you on your back - and the Crocodile Tears you cry
The Crocodile Tears you cry, the Crocodile Tears

Your tantrums turn me on, a drama queen bitch
Tie me tighter tonight, you deserve what you get

There's nothing you can do
When your backs against the wall
And the straps are on your wrist
Can you fight through a tortured soul?

I can love you better than that - and the Crocodile Tears you cry
I won't leave you on your back - and the Crocodile Tears you cry
The Crocodile Tears you cry, the Crocodile Tears
