

Cry Baby

Gino Vannelli

Cry baby shed a thousand tears
Cry baby till all the dry land disappears
You can sugar-coat the truth
With all sweetness and light
You can beg me for mercy
But pardon my spite
Cry it's your turn tonight

Cry baby for all the good times we had
Cry baby no the good don't outshine the bad
You can grease me with kisses
Till your red lips turn blue
Offer me affection
But what good would it do
Cry like I cried for you

I'm tired of making love together
When you're apt to forget my given name
It's over it's finished and what's better
I am completely without pain

Cry baby like a cloudburst in the sky
Cry baby in other words goodbye
You can try to move a mountain
Attempt to calm the sea
You'd sooner raise a dead man
Than my deep sympathy
Cry it don't matter to me

It's over it's finished and what's better
I am completely without pain

Cry baby ooh
Cry baby in other words goodbye
You can try to move a mountain
Attempt to calm the sea
You'd sooner raise a dead man
Than my deep sympathy
Cry it just don't matter to me

I want you to cry cry cry cry cry...
Cry baby, cry baby
Cry cry cry cry cry...
