

Fix It

Ginuwine

You know what baby?
You goin' through too much
And you don't need to be
I'm right here, I'm your shoulder
I love you

Whatever is wrong I will fix it
Whatever is lost I'll replace it

Say what's up, how you been?
If you say fine I know you're lying
But I can see it in your eyes, you've been crying
Tell G why
Listen, who the hell does he think he is?
Constantly dippin' out on you yeah
If he don't realize what he has, he's a fool
And that ain't cool

Ain't no questionin'
That I'm a better man
(I'm the better man for you yeah)
Baby take my hand
You know I understand
(Baby take my hand I wanna be your man)

Whatever is wrong I will fix it
Whatever is lost I'll replace it
Whatever you need, girl I got it
Your heart's broken, let me mend it

What is this you're telling me he's got kids
More than six (whoa)
And he lives with his moms
And y'all can't keep her out your mix (no, no)
Anytime you see the truth that he's a liar
And don't love you
He got you twisted
He got you buck wild
He got you trippin'
But now all that's done cause you are with me

Ain't no questionin'
That I'm a better man
(I'm the better man for you oh yes I am)
Baby take my hand
You know I understand
(Baby take my hand, you know I wanna be your man)

Whatever is wrong I will fix it
Whatever is lost I'll replace it
Whatever you need, girl I got it
Your heart's broken, let me mend it

I hate to be the one to say I told you so
But I told you so
And I just can't help myself
I still care for you and what you're going through

Oh, believe me when I say that I'm down baby
I need you baby
You'll never find another, 'nother like me yo

Whatever is wrong I will fix it
Whatever is lost I'll replace it
Whatever you need, girl I got it
Your heart's broken, let me mend it
