

Lying to Each Other

Ginuwine

Let's put it on the table
Lately we ain't been getting along
I'd rather watch cable
Than see you with a negligee on

You're sick of my mood and my attitude
When I don't get my way
You stay on the Internet every chance you get
So you won't have to see my face

We fib, we fight
We fuss but tonight
Girl we kiss, we touch
Even if we have to lie

I'ma tell you baby you're the best
You gon' tell me baby you're the best
We just gon' be two people in bed
Lying to each other, oh yeah

Tell me you been fiending
From this all day while you was at work
And I'ma tell you I was open
Wish you would hurry on home
Get on top of me and work

You're sick of my mood and my attitude
When I don't get my way
You stay on the Internet every chance you get
So you won't have to see my face

We fib, we fight
We fuss but tonight
Girl we kiss, we touch
Even if we have to lie

I'ma tell you baby you're the best
You gon' tell me baby you're the best
We just gon' be two people in bed
Lying to each other

Baby laa, oh, oh, I'm listening
Baby laa, oh, oh, I'm listening, yes I am
Baby laa, oh, oh, I'm listening, yes I am

We fib, we fight
We fuss but tonight
Girl we kiss, we touch
Even if we have to lie

I'ma tell you baby you're the best
You gon' tell me baby you're the best
We just gon' be two people in bed
Lying to each other

I'ma tell you baby you're the best
You gon' tell me baby you're the best

We just gon' be two people in bed
Lying to each other
