

Reach for the Stars

Girls Under Glass

When you are alone by yourself
Reach for the stars and you will touch them..
And the light of the dawn and the shadow in your face
Reach for the stars and you will touch them
Yeah it's got the feeling
And it's got the future
You hold your hands
Out with nothing to give
Your mind and your body slave to a memory and a quiet smile
'Til the moment is past

When you are alone by yourself
Reach for the stars and you can touch them..
You give all that you have
To give a meaning, you have nothing to hide
To hide at all
Your mind and your body slave to a memory and a quiet smile
'Til the moment is past
