

This Time

Girlschool

I heard a rumour, gonna be today
A magic touch a little too much
To steal your heart away
Steal away

This time you're mine
Feels like the first time (you're mine)
I'm taking on you
This time you're mine
Just like the first time (you're mine)
I'm taking on you

At the midnight hour with no warning sign
I'm On the prowl to track you down
I'm out to take whats mine
Like a thief in the night

This time you're mine
Feels like the first time (you're mine)
I'm taking on you
This time you're mine
Just like the first time (you're mine)
I'm taking on you

A little obsession
goes a very long way
Who says crime
doesn't pay.
