

Rescue Me

Glamour of the Kill

I'm not waking up from this, nightmare's never ending
Fear has got the best of me, and my heart is wasting
Can't escape what's in my mind, it's so complicated
See the things I can't describe, am I hallucinating

I don't recognize the face that is staring through me
There's no life behind these eyes, there's no point pretending
Am I still alive, 'cuz I've got no vital signs
Note from the insides, 'cuz I've got no feelings

I'm running out of time, where do I draw the line

Rescue me, I'm falling apart
I wanna be myself again
And save me, I'm falling apart
I wanna be myself again

Someone tell me, is my heart still beating?
Someone tell me, if I'm still breathing
Someone tell me, how I lost my mind
Someone tell me, am I still alive (am I still alive)

Rescue me, 'cuz I'm falling apart, I wanna be myself again
Rescue me, 'cuz I'm falling apart, I wanna be myself

Rescue me, I'm falling apart
I wanna be myself again
And save me, I'm falling apart
I wanna be myself again
