

Go Away

Gloria Estefan

Go away, won't you just go away
Go away, don't you come back one day
Take your stuff, take all of your precious things
Leave right now, who knows what tomorrow brings

Stay away, won't you please stay away
Live your life, live it real far away
Save yourself, there's no way to get it all
Look around the writing is on the wall

And when you go, I won't miss you at all
And when you go, I'll be having a ball you will see
Thoughts of you, won't ever cross my mind
It's the truth, don't mean to be unkind

'Cause people have the right to party
And you won't let them have their fun
See ya, wouldn't wanna be ya
Auf wiedersehen, au revoir, shalom

Yeah, people have the right to party
And we're not waiting till you're gone
Ciao, bye bye, hasta la vista
Fare thee well, adios, so long

Go away, would you please go away
Go away, you're outta here come what may
Hit the road, don't bother to say goodbye
Don't care how, don't even matter why

And when you go, I won't miss you at all
And when you go, I'll be having a ball you will see
Thoughts of you, won't ever cross my mind
It's the truth, don't mean to be unkind

People have the right to party
And you won't let them have their fun
See ya, wouldn't wanna be ya
Auf wiedersehen, au revoir, shalom

Yeah, people have the right to party
And we're not waiting till you're gone
Ciao, bye bye, hasta la vista
Fare thee well, adios, so long

Ciao, bye bye, hasta la vista
Fare thee well, adios, so long
