

They Call Me Black Devil

Glorior Belli

They call me black devil,
Prince of sins and many more...
For I am the adversary,
The bringer of eternal sight

They call me black devil,
King of lies and many more...
For I am the antithesis,
The bearer of acosmic light

I am the greatest curse
Of limiting structures
Humming through the deserts
A secret that sets free

The weapons that I forge
Are crafted with the flame
That consumes all the forms
Of the cavsal system

The ritual that I sing
Is attuned with the flame
That annunciates trouble
For the divine mistake

For when I truly manifest
Yet hardly make my presence known
In that moment the universe
Slips through endless dark horizons!
