

Far Beyond Time

Gloryful

Darkness covering the past
And things that we once knew
Less is what remains
Less are all the things that last

Time is moving on so fast
And marching on and on
Raising memories
Of heroes becoming outcast

Listen to the wind
Still knowing, carrying them high
Up to the sky
Far beyond, looking through the dark
That shadows are all along your side
Burn up the light
Far beyond time

Out of ashes back to life
Back into glory ride
Follow down your roots
Find that precious moments

Still the spirit is around
Of heavy metal sound
Bang your head with me
If you are man enough to follow
