

God Against Man

Gloryful

Our march has begun
To fight against the force
The dark legacy
That keeps us weak

Break the chains
And tear down the walls
Our call to arms
Will reinforce our league

God against man
No gods, no masters
End the slavery

God against man
No gods, no masters
Live, your heart is free

Revenge is ours
Suppressed for all too long
Taking destiny back
Resist the storm

Don't be afraid
No one fights alone
Courage is the price
For our freedom

Our destiny
Breaking the chains
We are the free
