

Hiring the Dead

Gloryful

Have you heard of the evil in the north?
A growing fear for the worst case threat
Is no one here to prevent our loss?
Risking life, no matter bout costs

Tell me do you dare?
To seek and destroy
Tell me do you dare?
To avenge the World

Oh oh, our journey has begun
Hoping for guts
Live up to us
Fight, a place near the stars will be ours

No one will save us nor protect us from death
Fire at will
In our doom everyone for himself
Your eyes set to kill
All eyes set to kill

A place near the stars will be ours
Join the suicide command
