

The Warrior's Code

Gloryful

The hordes of evil are storming the field
I'm taking their lives, armed with hammer and shield
I'm smashing their bodies, I'm striking with wrath
To destroy the enemy, my duty and path

An eye for an eye
A tooth for tooth
For honor and pride

The warrior's code
That burns in your heart
'cause pain is temporary
Pride is forever, never surrender

I feel no fear gods are leading my hand
This is the end, this is the last stand
Rain washes spilled blood, from our face
The pain always fades, it's honor that stays

An eye for an eye
A tooth for tooth
For honor and pride

The warrior's code
That burns in your heart
'cause pain is temporary
Pride is forever, never surrender
