

Void of Tomorrow

Gloryful

As blood rains from the sky
The war of wrath begins
Our swords sworn to the cult
And will free us from our sins

With rage and fury we will strike
Praising the goddess on our way to fight
Listen up to the hellion cry
Drowned in the madness
We're ready to die

In brightest day
In blackest night
I choose the battle side by side
In brightest day
In blackest night
I choose the battle, together we will ride

Into the void of tomorrow
Uncertain our fate
An unknown destiny
Close to the edge of sorrow
For glory and pride, together we fight

Strike, unleash the beast
We will survive and prevail at least
In waves they come, steel meets steel
Iron will reign
Metal is real

Unbroken is our will
Chasing our fate and ready to kill
Like a firestorm we'll devastate
Burning the earth, there's no escape
