

Lost And Found

Go Radio

I hear you say the sun is setting and it's time to find belief
In something other than a heart that seems to dangle from a string

We've strung on this piano
Who knows just where the chords will go

How do I find a piece of faith in passing faces on the street
Forever asking where I'm going to the strangers that I meet
Can we just stop and hold sustain
Stay here and breathe sustained

I got scared
Can't seem to find it either here or there
Did I lose my rhythm now
Am I lost? Am I found?

When did the words all start to blur and make the point too hard to see
In all the writing on the walls in everyplace we had to be
I'd like to say we made a change
In how the songs were sang
So if I'm gonna break down
I'll do it for all of us

And I got scared
Can't seem to find it either here or there
Did I lose my rhythm now
Am I lost? Am I found?

And I got scared
Can't seem to find it either here or there
Guess I got caught in all the sounds
Am I lost? Am I found?

I got scared
Can't seem to find it either here or there
Did I lose my rhythm now
Am I lost? Am I found?

And I got scared
Can't seem to find it either here or there
Guess I got caught in all the sounds
Am I lost? Am I found?
