

The Ending

Go Radio

Do you ever feel
That you can't wake up
That today's a dream
And you've just been stuck
That nothing in this house breathes the same

If everybody in the room maybe stepped out
You'd never have to see the past where you hit the ground
And never have to miss the walls of the old house
So if you find that you're stuck in the moment
Just let your eyes cut away from the broken
And try to sleep like the broken's forgotten

If the path I take is the right one
Then what's to do with all that's left
'Cause my pride is built like a champion
But my heart's filled with regret
And how can I deal with moving over
When all I feel is so offset
'Cause my mind is torn like the pages
Of a story yet unsaid
This can't be the ending

And did you ever dream
You were something great
That you changed a life
Weren't so afraid
That none of the colors we know fade

Oh, you can find a spark
In your yesterday
Be your something more
Be your saving grace
Be the change that you need for the years you will face
'Cause when you tell every soul that you meet you
Have a hope that you have to hold on to
You show the world you're enough
We are who we are but we're still scared because

If the path I take is the right one
Then what's to do with all that's left
'Cause my pride is built like a champion
But my heart's filled with regret
How can I deal with moving over
When all I feel is so offset
'Cause my mind is torn like the pages
Of a story yet unsaid
This can't be the ending
This can't be, no this can't be, this can't be the ending

Cause this can't be the ending
And do you ever feel that you can't wake up
