Pick away at my bones, There's nothing left to see I've been forever drowning in what you want to be The soonest I'd be leaving isn't quick enough for me I don't need a reason to be free Breathe my life untill you see There's nothing left for me I've wasted far too long Feel nothing after a time Don't know why, down my spine Grieving is unrefined Can't cross the line I look for a sign Can you conceal the way you feel And what you steal from what is real and Breathe my life untill you see There's nothing left for me I've wasted far too long wasted far to long Breathe my life untill you see There's nothing left for me I've wasted far too long
