No Rest for the Wicked

Godsmack

Walked the fine line slipped the edge under me Rise above a suicide taking it outta me Got a feeling it's going far away, yeah Licking the wounds from yesterday

Gonna fly, takin' my time, strip down to nothing Gonna try, but there's no rest for the wicked

Been through the skin of a dragon a thousand times Yet every day I live for you, still I'm not alive Got a feeling, I'm gonna fall away
Give me a sign one reason that I should stay

Gonna fly, takin' my time, strip down to nothing Gonna try, but there's no rest for the wicked Gonna fly, take my time, strip down to nothing Gonna try, but there's no rest for the wicked

Are you ready to know just who I am?

Do you think you can make me a better man?

Crack me open, expose me to your ways?

But ignorance and arrogance are my ways, oh yeah

No rest for the wicked, baby

Gonna fly, take my time, strip down to nothing Gonna try, but there's no rest for the wicked Gonna fly, take my time, strip down to nothing Gonna try, but there's no rest for the wicked
