

Dope runner

Golden Earring

Who's that runnin' scared in sight?
Of the morning and the death of night?

Getting tired like a sinkin' stone
Lost a fire long time ago
And I try to understand
I'm stunned and don't know where it ends

Who's that runnin' scared in sight?
Of the morning and the death of night?

Dope runner

Who's that guy with the kids and wife?
Poorly swept and ran with his life

Here's the moment of no return
He's got a ticket and he's ready to go
Still tryin' to understand
I'm stunned and don't know where it ends

Who's that runnin' scared in sight?
Of the morning and the death of night?
