Enough Is Enough

Golden Earring

Well, it's long ago, I ran into you A pair of lonely eyes and a pair of broken hearted shoes And then the other night, you were as cold as snow You kept your blue jeans on and I never heard you leavin' the r oom Woke up half past noon, I was alone in bed I could still smell your perfume Drifting through the smoke signals of your black cigarettes You gotta hold on me, straight to the bedroom When my nerves went cracking down in my knees

Enough, enough is enough If it's love, nothing's tougher than love Written on my shaving mirror, in lipstick blood colour Amigo, leave it alone. You gotta leave it alone

Pick up the telephone, start investigating You know that Cuban girl, with the Castro impersonation I've been checking around, with the revolutionary All I have is a mirror with a message and a memory You'll never understand, what comes over me When I read the lines, written on the face I see Tell her please, If it's love, I wanna know where she hides that love

Enough, is never enough Nothing can stop me now No one can stop me now I can't leave it alone, I can't leave it alone I can't leave it alone, I can't leave it alone No, no, no
