Landing

Golden Earring

When daylight and nighttime feel the same It's time for your mind to play a game Close all your eyes and touch the air Reach for a hand that must be there You know how it fools you And you know how it is To be one of those people Who don't know what they miss You can hide away from reality And escape

Yesterday I felt it And the first thing I thought Never let go I held it as close as I could When it didn't grow like it should And then, after hours, I opened my head I found myself back on the floor near my bed Nothing has changed, it was all the same again The same again

When daylight and nighttime feel the same It's time for your mind to play a game Close all your eyes and touch the air Reach for a hand that must be there You know how it fools you And you know how it is To be one of those people Who don't know what they miss You can hide away from reality But you can't escape
