Only One

Goo Goo Dolls

I'll open up my head awhile Its been dead for years Must've been a victim of my peers One is for my happiness The other for my health The last is something bigger than myself

I ain't the only one I ain't the only one I ain't the only one to say

I'm talkin' to myself again I'll just start a fight And nobody can prove me wrong, I'm right Anti-hero idol with a suicide excuse A thousand other suckers who try and fill your shoes

I ain't the only one I ain't the only one I ain't the only one to say

Little pictures in my head, turnin' inside-out again Cuz fuckin' up takes practice, I feel I'm well rehearsed Because the past is a bully and the future's even worse Tell me what you fear cuz I can feel it like a curse

Well, you used to be a folk singer, now you're just a joke sing er Ain't no smokin' dope singer, swingin' from a rope singer

I ain't the only one I ain't the only one I ain't the only one to say
