

Still Your Song

Goo Goo Dolls

E

1. Called you up ten years too late

C#

Just to hear your voice again

B

I know your voice is still the same

I know that something's changed

2. My words are choked and full of tears

But still you listen to me dear

And someone's calling you away

And now I understand

F# A

X: The time that I've wasted

F#

So bitter and faithless

A

Is tearing me down now,

B

Down now

E

R: So can you hear me?

C#

Or would you sing along

B

Or turn me down

Forget I ever wrote this for you?

So can you hear me?

Or has it been too long

I know that I was wrong

And this is still your song

3. Turn it on and off again

And now I lost another friend

You waded through my darkest thoughts

When I was sure to drown

4. And now I pass you on my way

And if you stop, what could I say?

Apologies for yesterday

Like a fool, I walk away

X: The time...

R: So can you...

F#A

*: And all I understand

F#

We're here and gone again

A

Even through a thousand sleepless nights

F# A

I fill the page with my beliefs

F#

It's all I have to keep

A

Tear it up and start again

R: So can you...

E

I don't pretend to understand

B

All the things I put you through

E

And I don't need forgiveness

B

But I owe one thing to you

This is your song

B

This is your song
