

Serve The Masses

Gorefest

I'd turn my back & walk away
If I could save this world in one more day
I just do not feel the urge

I am a servant, I am a serpent
And i serve what you deserve

I've waited for this way too long
The feelings never be so strong
I want to show you now i feel

I am a servant, I am a serpent
And i serve what you deserve

Serving the masses
Scatter the ashes
Trample the masses
Serving the ashes
Serving the masses
