

How can I

Gosia Andrzejewicz

How can I let you walk away
Just walk away
Don't you really want to stay
So much time just poured away
Just thrown away

Boy you make me cry
We've put in so much time
To this me and you
It's been so good
Is she so damn fine
Does she know that you're a sly
Guy who'll make his moves
And take all of you

How can I let you walk away...

Still, you come around
And make all of these sounds
Saying i didn't mean to Go and hurt you
I'm strong, i'll move on
And take some strides
Far away from you
And your untruths

If i know, now i give my all to you
But if i give my all to you
Tell me who can i

You don't know me
You don't know me
You don't know me
