

Every Heartbeat

Grace Potter

Every song I sing sounds like I'm calling to you
I'm falling harder day by day
Every word you speak, the doubts that lingered in me
Begin to slowly fade away

And I'm hoping that the morning's gonna make it here on time
'Cause I can't wait to find you by my side

I can feel you, and you can feel me
And I fall deeper with every heartbeat
And when you call me, I'll come running
I fall deeper with every heartbeat
I fall deeper with every heartbeat

I try to tell myself that I could live without you
You left me lost and so alone
So I will keep you close, lay your head beside me
You bring me joy I've never known

And I'm hoping that the morning's gonna make it here on time
'Cause I can't wait to find you by my side

I can feel you, and you can feel me
And I fall deeper with every heartbeat
And when you call me, I'll come running
I fall deeper with every heartbeat
I fall deeper with every heartbeat

Please believe me, hear me when I say
Oh, I know, I know I'll never be the same
The only sure thing is that everything will change
But I'm gonna be there, gonna be there waiting
When you wake
Ooh

And I'm hoping that the morning's gonna make it here on time
'Cause I can't wait to find you by my side

And I can feel you, and you can feel me
And I fall deeper with every heartbeat
And when you call me, I'll come running
I fall deeper with every heartbeat
I fall deeper with every heartbeat
