

Everyday Love

Grace Potter

I've seen the highs, I've seen the lows
I've had it come, and I've had it go
Watched it disappearing right before my eyes
Somehow, all the cuts and all the burns
And all the wrong turns
Brought me here to have you holding me tonight

This ain't no everyday love
We ain't no everyday lovers
Don't matter what came before, all we need is us
This ain't no everyday love

I had a life I thought was true
'Til the moment I met you
Then my heart was broken open like the sky
I swear your hands can cure my pain
Your eyes chase the fear away
And your kiss erases all the wasted time

This ain't no everyday love
We ain't no everyday lovers
It don't matter what came before, all we need is us
This ain't no everyday love

Good enough ain't all that hard to find
I never knew that was I had was wrong
Until I had what's right

This ain't no everyday love
We ain't no everyday lovers
It don't matter what came before, all we need is us
This ain't no everyday love
Oh, this ain't no everyday love
Everyday love
