Sacred Fire

Grave Digger

My heart is pounding, full moon is rising My brain is crying, my eyes are staring I know what will happen to my soul Insanity will taken control

Sacred fire Burning higher Sacred fire Is my desire

I feel the hunger, I feel the pain
I lick the blood, that's running through your veins
I bite your heart and lead you to death
Only the sacred fire can save your breath

Sacred fire Burning higher Sacred fire Is my desire
