

Little man

Greedy Invalid

Open your eyes
don't be shy
The light won't hurt you
It is just the sun
Our empty lives
we keep asking why
Who will do
I'm not the one

I love you
you hate my love
I hate you
you really don't know why?
There's a boy crying
I can see myself in his eyes
please help him!
He's not afraid to die

Open your eyes
I'm here to save you my friend
They told you lies
I whisper
There is no end
Can you smell the scent?
