

My path

Greedy Invalid

You said I'm a weak non-male creature and you we're dead right
But the way you told me I'm a beast of nature destroyed our lovely night

I ain't gonna play the role of potential sex symbol I'm more than you think even if you don't like the way I speak to you

I do still have my path
It helps me to master these times
The moon is in charge of my path
The path that drives my life

My value is based on the fact I know what misery is and I live my life and think in this kind of way

Temptation is a pain of unaccomplished game
You lose all in the start - the beauty tears you apart

I recognized the fact before but I didn't listen to my f senses I was a fool or even more today I'm wiser, baby... gonna kick your ass

I have been very naive as I thought that with you I can breathe You nearly cut off my throat
I hate you in a way that is cold as ice
