

Coming Home

Gregory Isaacs

Coming home, yes I am

I'm coming home with you tonight
To brighten up your darkest night
So don't you ever fuss and fight 'cause
Everything will be alright, alright
Everything will be alright
Don't act illiterately, girl
Come, let's talk intelligently, yeah
Come and tell me that you're mine 'cause
Tomorrow's sun may never shine, alright
Tomorrow's sun may never shine

Coming home, yes I am

Don't act illiterately, girl
I said to come, let's talk intelligently, yeah
Come and tell me that you're mine 'cause
Tomorrow's sun may never shine, alright
Tomorrow's sun may never shine

I'm coming home, yes I am
Coming home, alright, I will
