

Happy Anniversary

Gregory Isaacs

Now I've heard you finally find yourself a new love
And he is treating you like more
Better than I used to do, is it true?
And I heard that very lately you've been engaged
And you're married and your wedding
Happens the day, the next day

But I don't care what you say
And I don't care what you wanna do
Say wherever you may be
I dedicate this song to you, ooh ooh

It's a happy anniversary, always bring lonely memory
Though you sent an invitation
To everyone you know, but me, ooh wee
I says happy anniversary, always bring lonely memory

So I pay that no mind
'Cause that's the way Jah want it to be

Try to forget about the past
But in my mind it's meaningless
And so I, need not to worry

'Cause happy anniversary, always bring lonely memory
Happy anniversary, that's the way Jah planned it to be Happy anniversary, lonely memory
Happy anniversary, I'm so glad it isn't me

Lonely memory, happy anniversary
Lonely memory

Oh... lonely memory
I'm so glad it isn't me, ooh wee
Lonely memory...
