

I'm Coming Home

Gregory Isaacs

Coming home
Yes I am

I'm coming home with you tonight
To brightness up your darkest night
So don't you ever fuss and fight
'Cause everything will be alright, alright
Everything will be alright

Don't act illiterately
Come let's talk intelligently, yeah
Come and tell me that your mine
'Cause tomorrow sun may never shine, alright
Tomorrow sun may never shine, alright

Coming home
Yes I am

Don't act illiterately, girl
I said come let's talk intelligently, yeah
Come and tell me that your mine
'Cause tomorrow sun may never shine, alright
Tomorrow sun may never shine, alright

I'm coming home
Yes I am

Coming home
Alright...
