

My Time

Gregory Isaacs

Whoa...

My resistance is getting weaker
I just can't stand the pressure
I can't get be any weaker
I've got to find me some other treasure

I need, nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the right to be
Like any other man, yeah

My mind in such a state
Sometimes it makes me sick, Lord
At times I've tried to hate
But I just don't know the trick

I need, nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the right to be
Like any other man, yeah

Experience taught us wisdom
Thank God I've got some life left
I'm getting out a serpent
My soul stands a test

I need, nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the right to be
Like any other man, yeah

Whoa...

My resistance is getting weaker
I just can't stand the pressure
I can't get be any weaker
I've got to find me some other treasure

I need, nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the right to be
Like any other man, yeah
