

Sinner Man

Gregory Isaacs

Long time I ah preach it
And now you come reveal it
So you've got to bow down on your knees
'Cause you can't plant corn and reap peas

Bound to reap what you sow
And you'll surely get a blow
You've got to run for cover, cover
Now that righteous come to tek over, over

Got to run and hide, you sinners
'Cause I and I was born winners
All the wrong you did, you could never succeed
'Cause I and I you could never mislead

I said you can't plant corn and reap peas
I said you can't plant corn and reap peas

Got to run and hide, you sinners
'Cause I and I was born winners
All the wrong you did, you could never succeed
'Cause I and I you could never mislead

I said you can't plant corn and reap peas, oh no
You can't plant corn and reap peas
I said you can't plant corn and reap peas
That's why you've got to bow down on your knees
Got to run and hide, you sinners
