

Consequence of Love

Gregory Porter

I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may
You see a gain for me is you
I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say
You see the game to me is you

I begin to hate
Time and distance
'Cos it makes me wait
That's all I seem to do

I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may
You see a gain for me is you
I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say
You see the game to me is you

I begin to hate
Time and distance
'Cos it makes me wait
That's all I seem to do

I'll anticipate
With all my patience
'Cos it makes me wait
Coming home to you

I will go
To the consequence of love
Whatever come what may
You see a gain for me is you
I will fight
For the right to be your love
No matter what they say
You see the game to me is you
The game to me is you
The game to me is you
The game to me is love
