

Fading

Gretchen

Staring at my reflection I'm becoming numb
I barely recognize this thing that I've become

All alone, in the dark, feel the beating of my heart

I'm fading inside, lately
I can not seem to find myself again
I'm fading inside, lately
I can not find myself..

(Anymore)

Buried beneath the surface, pounding in my brain
A desperate need for something I can not escape

All alone, in the dark, feel the beating of my heart

I'm fading inside, lately
I can not seem to find myself again
I'm fading inside, lately
I can not find myself.

What is wrong here, I don't belong here (Save me)
What is wrong here, I don't belong here (Save me)
What is wrong here, I don't belong here (Save me)
What is wrong here, I don't belong here.. from myself..

All alone, in the dark

I'm fading inside, lately
I can not seem to find myself again
I'm fading inside, lately
I can not find myself.
I'm fading inside, lately
I can not find myself..
myself.
