

Seasons

Greyson Chance

Stalled
In the mid of my street
And I'm needing some clarity
And I carve the radio
To find a song like you, like you

Oh, no I'm not looking back
To rewrite our stories past
I gave up years ago
And as guarded as I am
I've got things I've left unsaid
Not forever a kid

Well I'm livin' in the shade of my mind
I just stopped for a second I reason
I move forward like the seasons

Linked
To adventures I can't see
And I'm dreamin' of some time to breathe
And I'll walk to them
Till I'm black and blue
In search of the new
Won't wait until I'm older

Oh, no I'm not looking back
To rewrite my fucking past
I gave up years ago
And as guarded as I am
I've got things I've left unsaid
Not forever a kid

Well I'm livin' in the shade of my mind
I just stopped for a second I reason
I move forward like the seasons
I move forward like the seasons
I move forward like the seasons
I move forward like the seasons
I move forward like the seasons
