Greyson Chance

I'm holding onto every word that you last said to me
Hear your emotion and how everything to you was uneasy

All these hours between us
They mean nothing, I'll be back to you one day, one day
And all these miles between us
They mean nothing, oh I promise we're okay, we're okay

2AM calls, oh it's my nature
I'm a little bit high calling to tell you
I'm yours, I'm yours
Remember that night out in my car
When I told you there wouldn't be no scars
Still yours, still yours

No matter who I'm with, it's you that I adore
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours
Given the way you make me feel, I want you more
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours

I'm hoping that you'll hear me when I say I need you around
'Cause life's so busy babe, you keep me up, I'm never coming down

And all these towns between us
They mean nothing, I'll be back to you one day, one day
And all these roads between us
They mean nothing, oh I promise we're okay, we're okay

2AM calls, oh it's my nature
I'm a little bit high calling to tell you
I'm yours, I'm yours
Remember that night out in my car
When I told you there wouldn't be no scars
Still yours, still yours

No matter who I'm with, it's you that I adore
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours
Given the way you make me feel, I want you more
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours

I know it's how you're feeling
I'm here, I'm never leaving
I'm yours, I'm yours
I know it's how you're feeling
I'm here, I'm never leaving
I'm yours, I'm yours
I'm yours

No matter who I'm with, it's you that I adore
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours
Given the way you make me feel, I want you more
If you're not sure, baby I'm yours

2AM calls, oh it's my nature
I'm a little bit high calling to tell you
I'm yours, I'm yours
Remember that night out in my car

When I told you there wouldn't be no scars
Still yours, still yours
