

Wake Me Up (Amnesia)

Group 1 Crew

Woke up a stranger, in a life I never thought I'd lead
The danger, when I put my hope and faith in me
It's a battle, there's a war in deep inside of me
Who will I choose, me or you?

Cause' I forget the things that I should do
And I do the things I shouldn't
And I find myself workin' hard to just forget
All that I did I said I wouldn't
Bring me back to the days of me, remembering
That your love, it has no limits
So who will I choose, me or you?

Won't you wake me up when my faith is asleep
You never let me go, bring back my memory
You bring these fools to love when you breathe into me
Remind me how much I need ya
When I get amnesia
Wake me up
Amnesia
Wake me up
Amnesia
Wake me up

Help me remember you love me (I know what you do)
When my thoughts deceive my fragile heart
I know that you're for me (and I know what you're)
Even when my worlds fallin' apart
With you there is no worry
Yeah, you plan my life from the start
So what do I do?
I choose you

Cause' I forget the things that I should do
And I do the things I shouldn't
And I find myself workin' hard to just forget
All that I did I said I wouldn't
Bring me back to the days of me, remembering
That your love, it has no limits
So who will I choose, me or you?

Won't you wake me up when my faith is asleep
You never let me go, bring back my memory
You bring these fools to love when you breathe into me
Remind me how much I need ya
When I get amnesia
Wake me up

When I lose my hope show me all that you've done
And how you kept me close when I wanted to run
Your love that makes me whole when I come undone
Remind me how much I need ya
When I get amnesia
Wake me up
Amnesia
Wake me up
Amnesia

Wake me up

Remind me who I am
I'm not who I used to be
You wiped away my past
And now I stand a brand new me
So wake me up
Wake me up

Won't you wake me up when my faith is asleep
You never let me go, bring back my memory
You bring these fools to love when you breathe into me
Remind me how much I need ya
When I get amnesia
Wake me up

When I lose my hope show me all that you've done
And how you kept me close when I wanted to run
Your love that makes me whole when I come undone
Remind me how much I need ya
When I get amnesia
Wake me up
