Go Away

Guillemots

When a sunny day is not a sunny day All you've really left to do is pray When a rainy day is not a rainy day What more, what more, what more could I ever say? Except I

When a walk in the park only renders darkness When a walk in the park only renders darkness When a walk in the park only renders darkness 'Cause there are no ducks to feed Feed, feed, feed, feed

When you cannot love with both your hands

Well chop them off, chop them off And bury them in the sand
