

Everything Is Hallelujah

Gungor

I'm letting it go
'Til there's nothing to hide you
Nothing besides you
No idols to hold
You are my ground
You're my song
You're my lover
My father and mother
The breath of the world
Lines and the swirls

Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah

Spun from your wildest dreams
Ribbons and trampolines
I'll be your fantasy if you'll be my heart

You're every kiss
You're the bliss in a million eyes
The dust becomes realized
The Spirit, she breathes
With raindrops and seas

And everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah

Everything is
Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah

Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah
Everything is hallelujah
