

Finally

Gungor

Call me back into the silence
Into the sunlight
Every breath a standing defiance
Of death and of clamor
Let darkness be scattered now

Be
Here in the free
We could just be
Finally
We'll chase the sun
Naked we'll run
We could be free
Finally

I'll be here waiting in silence
Waiting for sunlight
To make all the world shine bright

All the stars fall in line
And the seas bow their heads
We remember our dead and we sing another day
As the silence it grows and the worlds fade away
All the sons empty their graves
We will sing another day
We'll sing another day

Here in the free
We could just be
Finally
We'll chase the sun
Naked we'll run
We could be free
Finally
We'll chase the sun
Naked we'll run
We could just be
Finally
We could be free
Finally
