

Love Is All

Gungor

This old ground
Blind to eyes
Deaf to my heart
Now lies, scars
Prejudice hides
Keeps us apart

There's no life without a death
Plant without a seed
Up without a down

Till this hardened earth with love
Till we find our peace
Lay our egos down

All I know
Is love is all
All I know
Is love is all

Heart like stone
Wanting to fight spirit to bone
Justice comes only as I open my eyes

There's no life without a death
Plant without a seed
Up without a down

Till this hardened earth with love
Till we find our peace
Lay our egos down

All I know
Is love is all
All I know
Is love is all

Love is all
Everything you ever need
Love is gonna set you free
Love is gonna
Love is gonna

Love is all
Everything you ever need
Love is gonna set you free
Love is gonna
Love is gonna

Love is gonna set you free
Love is gonna
Love is gonna

All I know
(Love is gonna set you free)
(Love is gonna)
(Love is gonna)

Is love is all
(Love is gonna set you free)
(Love is gonna)
(Love is gonna)
All I know
