Immigrant Eyes

Guy Clark

Oh Ellis Island was swarming
Like a scene from a costume hall
Decked out in the colors in Europe
And on fire with the hope of it all

There stood my father's own father stood huddled With the tired and hungry and scared Turn of the century pilgrims
Bound by the dream that they shared

They were standing in lines just like cattle Poked and prodded and shoved Some were one desk away from sweet freedom Some were were torn from someone they love

Through this sprawling tower of babel Came a young man confused and alone Determined and bound for America And carryin' everything that he owned

Sometimes when I look in my grandfather's Immigrant Eyes I see that day reflected and I can't hold my feelings inside I see starting with nothing and working hard all of his life So don't take it for granted say grandfather's Immigrant Eyes

Now he rocks and stares out the window But his eyes are still just as clear As the day he sailed through the harbor And come ashore on the island of tears

My grandfather's days are numbered But I won' t let his memory die 'Cause he gave me the gift of this country And the look in his Immigrant Eyes
