

Candle

Guy Sebastian

I'm like 10 thousand miles from you
And there's like 10 thousand girls in view
Let's tryna save them with me
Get that drink on for free
Tryna get me to my hotel room
Back it up, back it up, back it up
I ain't tryna do nothing
Back it up, back it up, back it up
All I want is my woman

'cause they don't know the candle
To you, to you
You're my better handful
It's true, it's true
Ain't nobody taking your place
You're the only body I praise
They don't know the candle
Yeah, they don't know the candle
To youuuuuuu

She got that dress on to show her curves
And she came backstage to do some work
I knew when she said hello
She was ready to go
Round her finger round my shirt
Back it up, back it up, back it up
I ain't tryna do nothing
Back it up, back it up, back it up
All I want is my woman
My woman

'cause they don't know the candle
To you, to you
You're my better handful
It's true, it's true
Ain't nobody taking your place
You're the only body I praise
They don't know the candle
Yeah, they don't know the candle
To youuuuuuu

To youuuuuuu
Cause no one puts their hands on me
Like youuuuu
Yeah nothing ever burns like your flame
That's why I wouldn't give you my name
'cause they don't hold a candle
No one holds a candle
To youuuuuuu

Ain't nobody taking your place
You're the only body I praise
'cause they don't know the candle
Yeah, they don't know the candle
To youuuuuuu
