

Never Kissed Anyone with Blue Eyes Before You

Gwen Stefani

This year I've got so much to celebrate
This Christmas is gonna be the best that I ever had
Now I've got you, everything's feeling brand new
This year I've got so much to celebrate

I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you
I'm hearing silver bells when your lips do what they do
You're getting these brown eyes seeing color it's so true
I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you

You make everyday feel just like a holiday
You're the answer to the every night prayer I pray
Now I've got you, everything's feeling brand new
You make everyday feel just like a holiday

I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you
I'm hearing silver bells when your lips do what they do
You're getting these brown eyes seeing color it's so true
I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you

Now I know what they mean by love
I finally know what they mean by love

I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you
I'm hearing silver bells when your lips do what they do
You're getting these brown eyes seeing color it's so true
I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you

I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you
I'm hearing silver bells when your lips do what they do
You're getting these brown eyes seeing color it's so true
I never kissed anyone with blue eyes before you
