

Love Against the Wall

Gyptian

Oh hey my love
My love

What would you do if you go home see your girl crying
And you ask what's up cries cause all by you, oh
What you do if your girl she say that she's leaving
Cause when a woman is fed up all she want to do is leave, oh
What if your girl caught you lying
And you try to deny, but you're still lying out through your teeth, oh
How would you feel if she said that she was cheating
Because she caught you cheating, with Susie but no

Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl
Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl

I'm feeling good, so fine, my baby's always on my mind
Through the roughest of time, she's always by my side
Oh she motivates me, yes, she so real to me oh
And all the time she says baby look me, oh no

Love is sticking, love is sticking on the wall

Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl
Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl

Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl
Love, sticking on the wall my love keep going on
My love keeps getting stronger girl

Keeps me going on
Oh love
Love
