

Carnivale

(həd) p.e.

Know your enemies well
They enter your life
Disguised as your friends
Know your enemies well
They're in the next room
Waiting for you to fall asleep

CHORUS

Why?
I don't know how you can live such a...
Lie...
To yourself, now I know who you are
Why?
I can forgive, but I'll never forget
How you put a price on my head!

So little I can say
And less that I can do

To make you understand
These things you put me through
There's got to be a better way!
There's got to be a better way!

They're trying to silence my voice
They're feeling uncomfortable hearing my words
They wish I would shut the fuck up
Exposing the enemy

Truth always comes at a price

CHORUS

Know your enemies well
Trust nothing and no one
Cuz, everything sucks

Know your enemies well
Don't sleep for a minute
Cuz, that's when you're fucked

CHORUS

There's got to be a better way!...
